RE: Notice Soliciting Public Comments In FCC Docket RM-11287 (LPAM)

Dear Commissioners and Commission Staff,

I am writing with respect to the August 19, 2005 5-party Petition For Rulemaking to establish a Low Power AM (LPAM) Radio Service. On October 23, 2005, the FCC Docketed this Petition for public comments in RM-11287.

First of all:

May a thousand blessings be upon you for soliciting public comments on this Petition!

Second:

I notice your Notice cites "the Liberal Studies Program [of Hollins University]" as the fifth signatory to the Petition. Actually, however, I am the fifth Petitioner. Perhaps this misunderstanding arose because the Petition lists my address as: "Don Schellhardt, Esquire, Liberal Studies Program, Hollins University, Roanoke, Virginia 24020".

My words are not meant to imply that I have co-signed the Petition on behalf of the Liberal Studies Program at Hollins. They are meant only to indicate that I am currently enrolled as a graduate student in the Liberal Studies Program at Hollins. I am presently seeking, and expect to receive in 2006, a Master of Arts in Liberal Studies (MALS) degree. This is an interdisciplinary and self-directed degree, in pursuit of which I am acquiring new expertise in East Asian Studies, Women's Studies and Creative Writing.

I ask the Commission to correct the October 23 Notice at its convenience.
Thank you.

Sincerely,

Don Schellhardt
